

DOSHISHA UNIVERSITY

LEARNING COMMONS

Where Ideas Take Shape

How to use the Learning Commons

The Learning Commons

Find inspiration in range of new encounters and collaborate with others to bring new possibilities to life.

The Learning Commons is full of open, flexible spaces that can be adapted to fit a wide variety of needs. Here you can find knowledgeable staff who can help you transform your ideas into reality.

STEP 1

Encounter
Something
New

Discover knowledge and inspiration through a variety of new encounters with people, technology, information, and other things. First, visit the Learning Commons and take a look around.

STEP 2

Talk with Others

Putting your thoughts into words and getting feedback from others is vital to developing any idea. Even a casual conversation among friends can reveal different opinions and perspectives that can spark new connections.

STEP 3

Get Organized

Considering different perspectives and gaining an objective view of your idea is key to transforming it into a compelling project. Ask staff members for advice and keep the conversation going as you organize your thoughts into a plan.

STEP 4

Take Action

Finally, make it happen! The experience of carrying out a plan or project is crucial to the learning process. With some careful preparation, this will be a great source of confidence for your next challenge.

Imadegawa Ryoshinkan Learning Commons

2F

Reservations required

Application form required

Capacity <-> Area Staff

1

Presentation Court

approx. 100 people

※Open to students as a study space when not reserved for other purposes.

The Presentation Court represents the core design concept of the Learning Commons. This open, flexible event space can easily be configured to suit a wide variety of events that engage not only participants but also catch the interest of those passing by. For example, seating can be arranged for a lecture, or the grid of ceiling mounted tracks can be used to display posters for a poster session or exhibit.

2

Global Village

<Study Abroad Coordinator, Go Global Assistant>

A space where local and international students can meet and get to know each other.

Take a seat at the table or high counter facing the walkway and enjoy international exchange in different languages. (Just remember, no Japanese allowed.)

Thinking of studying abroad? Meet with a knowledgeable Study Abroad Coordinator and student advisor (Go Global Assistant) to ask questions and get advice.

3

Group Work Area 1

Move and combine the tables to suit your group's needs. Brainstorm in a large group, break into smaller groups for different tasks, or make space to spread out large sheets of paper.

4

Academic Support Area

<Faculty, Academic Instructors, LA>

Faculty, Academic Instructors, and Learning Assistants (LA) are ready to answer your questions and guide you through writing reports, doing research, making presentations, finding references, and other academic tasks. Get advice from an expert! Whether on your own or in a group, feel free to come here for help.

5

Info Diner

(16 Booths (6 people each booth))

※Same-day reservation available

With booth seats like you might find at a family-style restaurant, the relaxed setting of the Info Diner is great for group work. Collaborate efficiently by writing ideas on the whiteboard while simultaneously displaying images with the projector, or use a booth with a display screen to share content from your computer.

6

Information Counter

<Information Counter Staff, Learning Support Coordinators>

Come here to make reservations for different areas or borrow and return computers and other equipment. The Learning Support Coordinators can offer all sorts of advice about how to use the different areas of the Learning Commons.

Imadegawa Ryoshinkan Learning Commons

3F

1 Group Study Rooms

✓ 7 Rooms (approx. 14 people each room)

Use one room when meeting in a small group or combine rooms to accommodate more people by moving the string curtains. Equipped with whiteboards and electronic blackboards, these rooms are great for staying focused when collaborating as a group.

2 Group Work Area 2

Move and combine the tables to suit your group's needs. Brainstorm in a large group, break into smaller groups for different tasks, or make space to spread out large sheets of paper.

3 Workshop Rooms

📖 2 Rooms (① approx. 25 people ② approx. 25 people)

※ Open to students as a study space when not reserved for other purposes.

For your next workshop, consider Room ①, a closed space with clear glass walls, or Room ②, an open space with lots of natural light. These rooms are also regularly used to hold workshops on various academic skills.

4

Print Station

<Print Station Staff>

A one-stop shop for all your printing needs. You can print large posters, flyers, and name cards, or create laminated items, bound booklets, custom t-shirts, and novelty goods. Need some design advice? The Print Station Staff is here to help!

(* Printing and other services are provided for a fee.)

5

Multimedia Lounge

<Multimedia Lounge Staff>

Acquire new technical skills as you edit and process images and videos using a full suite of programs, and create 3D models with a 3D printer. The staff is always ready to help, so don't hesitate to ask questions.

6

Open computer lab (PC Corner)

Desktop PCs are available for working on reports and viewing references and databases.

There are on-demand printers (DoKoDeMo Printer) in the Learning Commons, and printouts are available.

Shinmachi Shinsokan Academic Plaza

1F

Academic Plaza

approx. 50 people

This space can be used not only for individual study, but also for group work by moving and combining the desks.

The open space with two-story ceiling has a stage where you can hold workshops, seminars, talk sessions, etc. using a projector.

Kyotanabe Memorial Library Learning Commons

1F

Reservations required

Application form required

Capacity

Area Staff

1 Presentation Court

approx. 40 people

- ※Up to approximately 70 people when using seats only.
- ※Open to students as a study space when not reserved for other purposes.

Located to the left of the library entrance, the Presentation Court is an adaptable space where events can engage not only participants but also can catch the interest of those passing by. Use the ceiling mounted tracks to display posters for a poster session or exhibit or rearrange seating and use the wide screen for a lecture or presentation.

2 Learning Court

This study space is located on the right side of the main entrance of the library. There are both table and counter seating, and the space can be used for a wide range of purposes from individual study to small group study.

3 Info Diner

 17 Booths (4-6 people each booth)

※Same-day reservation available

With booth seats, whiteboards, display screens (some with electronic blackboard functionality), and adjustable tables, the relaxed setting of the Info Diner is great for group work. Collaborate efficiently by writing out ideas on the whiteboard or sharing content from your computer on a display screen.

4 Academic Support Area

<Faculty, Academic Instructors, LA>

Faculty, Academic Instructors, and Learning Assistants (LA) are ready to answer your questions and guide you through report writing, research, mathematics, programming, specialized coursework for different majors, and more. Get advice from an expert! Whether on your own or in a group, feel free to come here for help.

5 Group Work Area

Move and combine the tables to suit your group's needs. Brainstorm in a large group, break into smaller groups for different tasks, or make space to spread out large sheets of paper.

You can also hold small seminars for up to a dozen people or use the projectors and ceiling mounted tracks to hold a poster session.

Rearrange the Layout of the tatami-covered benches for different purposes.

6 Workshop Rooms

 2 Rooms (approx. 8 people each room)

※Up to approximately 18 people when the two rooms are used as one large room
※Open to students as a study space when not reserved for other purposes.

The clear glass walls create an open atmosphere for workshops and study sessions. Remove the partition wall to combine the rooms for a larger space.

7 Information Counter

<Information Counter Staff>

Come here to make reservations for different areas or borrow and return computers and other equipment.

What should I do when...?

Q&A

- I have questions about studying and learning at the university
- I don't know how to write a report
- I don't know how to give a presentation
- I want to rehearse a presentation and receive some feedback

Academic Support Area

Staff stationed in the Academic Support Area are ready to answer all sorts of questions related to studying and academics. Feel free to come and ask!

- I want to make a booklet of papers for my seminar.
- I want to print out flyers, or make customized t-shirts.

Ryoshinkan Learning Commons (3F) Print Station

Staff with expert knowledge and experience are ready to help.

- I want to check the hours of the Learning Commons
- I want to find information on seminars and events being held at the Learning Commons

Please check the Learning Commons homepage for the latest information.

Visit the website to check the calendar, event information, and urgent announcements including irregular hours or closures.

- I want to reserve an area for a group study session.
- I want to hold a presentation, lecture, poster session or other event

Visit the Information Counter.

You can reserve an area based on the intended use of the space and number of participants. If you are not sure which area would be best, just ask the staff for their advice.

- I want to edit images or video

At the Multimedia Lounge in Ryoshinkan Learning Commons (3F, Imadegawa Campus), you can create a variety of multimedia content using equipment.
(At Kyotanabe Campus, you can use the Multimedia Lounge on the ground floor of Doshisha Rohm Plaza.)

- Can I eat or drink at the learning Commons?

Food and beverages permitted on the 2nd floor of Ryoshinkan Learning Commons, Learned Memorial Library Learning Commons and Shinsokan Academic Plaza. Beverages permitted (no food allowed) on 3rd floor of Ryoshinkan Learning Commons. Food: Only snacks are permitted. ※ This does not include items such as rice balls, sandwiches, or other meal-like items.

Learning Commons Website:

<https://lc.doshisha.ac.jp/lc/en/>

Visit the site below for details on how to make a reservation and for information about the equipment and facilities available in each area. You can check the availability of each area in real time, too.

<https://sakura.doshisha.ac.jp/>

Visit the website below for detailed rules for use and the reservation forms for each area.

• Usage guide

Home > Usage Guide > Guideline

<https://lc.doshisha.ac.jp/lc/en/rule/index.html>

• Facilities

HOME > Usage Guide > Application for use

<https://lc.doshisha.ac.jp/lc/en/application/index.html>

Learning Commons
Official Instagram

DOSHISHA.LC

Learning Commons
Official X

